

web services

✓ complete website services from ADM

- all types of project welcomed, from a new site to a redesign, from small company to corporate
- full range of website services, from project inception and design through to delivery and hosting

✓ specification and design

- creative and graphics in-house, or from your own designer
- consultancy services, for project specification and planning
- technical specification and time-planning

✓ project services

- project management, to bring your project in on time and to budget
- phased development and contract maintenance plans
- regular reports on development progress
- range of managed hosting options

✓ technical development

- experienced and capable technical team
- fluent with all kinds of web technology
- MS SQL, MySQL and Access database programming
- ground up development or package customisation

✓ website health check

If you think that your website could do more, call us on 01227 473540 to book a Free 21 Point Website Check